THERE are twelve charges against General O. H. LaGrange, Superintendent of the Branch Mint in San Francisco. The first two are, in substance, the following:

That O. H. La Grange, Superintendent of the U. S. Mint, located in the city of San Francisco, caused to be levied upon the employes of said Mint an assessment aggregating $2,000, for the sessment aggregating $2,000, for the avowed purpose of sending the same to the State of Nevada to carry that State for Hon. Thomas Fitch, then a candi-date for Congress; that from careful indate for Congress; that from careful in-quiries made of the State Central Com-mittee no money was received from O. H.
